NO

Dear "Mrs. Carrie Ann" and family. Please accept my sincere sympathy at the death of Mr. Porter. I am so sorry. I remember him and you (Mrs. Carrie Ann) at the senior Center at noon always having your blood pressures checked. He was so polite and patient with me. And you, Mrs. Carrie Ann, I have enjoyed the friendship we developed so very much. Talking about all our travels and just enjoying pleasant conversation together, while Mr. Porter sat quietly. By the way, I have now traveled twice with Ann Snow and enjoyed it so much. I went to the Canadian Rockies and to the Canton, TX flea market. I will travel more with her I am sure. Again I say, I am so sorry about the death of Mr. Porter. You all certainly took good care of him. May God continue to bless you and give you strength. With my admiration and prayers, Nancy O'Brien (your blood pressure nurse, now retired)
