“ I just learned of your loss of Jeanie. My heart goes out to you. What incredible loss you must feel. Surely it feels like a huge portion of your very own life has been ripped from you. I can't adequately express the regret and grief I feel on your account. How you will miss her but how much joy, contentment, and rest SHE HAS entered into. You will reconnect some fine day in a much "higher place." Your friend—Michael Gambill

“ Jeanie was such a happy soul. There was many times in school I seen Jeanie and how she interacted with people, she was definitely one of the sweetest souls I've ever encountered. She never knew me personally but many times she told me hello or hi on my way to breakfast or to lunch. And sometimes that smile and interaction is what people need. Jeanie was that person.

“ Jeanie was a sweet and loving person! I was Jeanie's teacher in Fifth Grade. The kids in the class loved Jeanie. I learned more from her that year than she did from me. When she came to school she was in a wheelchair because of a broken leg. The kids would fight over who was pushing her to lunch. I had to make a schedule. I loved Jeanie and she is going to be missed. One day I will see her again and get a big hug! Praying for the family.

Marquita Schneider - April 21 at 09:31 PM

“ I didn't know Jeanie well, but I do know many of her family. Once I visited her grandmother and grandpa Chapman and Jeanie was there. She appeared to be a little shy as her grandma introduced us. A sweet girl, and I remember well the smiles of her grandparents as they shared stories about Jeanie. Their eyes literally sparkled as they talked. It was obvious they loved her dearly. What a reunion they must be having. - May God bless and comfort all.

Phyllis Goodin - April 21 at 09:27 PM
