“ So so sorry to hear about my friend Joyce. I loved her and should have visited more. She was a ray of light to me. I am so blue that our paths crossed in this life and she will be there to greet me home when I am called home. I am sure she has many jewels in her crown. Sorry I missed all services....i have had issues myself. Prayers lifted up for her family.

“ I knew Joyce from Laurel, MS. I also had the joy of leading worship with her present at The Crossing every Sunday afternoon for the last several years. She was a devoted and zealous Christian. We love her dearly and always enjoyed our visits. I met her father, Leonard Swann, when he was an elder in the church in Laurel and I peached in Columbia, MS, just before I went away to college. I met Dottie in 1976 when I arranged for The Pied Pipers from Freed-Hardeman University to perform in the children's ward at the University of Mississippi Hospital. In 1989, I met Steve when he was a graduate assistant to one of my professors at the University of Arkansas. Then Steve and Dottie were colleagues with Helen and me at Harding University. We have lots of love for this family. We feel a great loss. However, we are confident that Joyce has experienced great gain. - Bill & Helen Lambert
