“ Aunt Wilma always welcomed with open and loving arms into her home this city girl who loved the country. It was thru her and her cedar bedroom furnitue that I developed a love of cedar and now have a house full. Even though I have not kept as close touch with her as I should have she will always be loved, missed and remembered. She was a great lady.

“ Sissy and Bud as I knew them, were our neighbors while us children were growing up. My mother, Syble Mason Fritts was Bud's 3rd cousin. My mother and Sissy were good friends growing on the farm. They rode and work together at a factory in Bald Knob.

She was sweet and kind to us children.

I really did not know her children that well, as I was the oldest in my family. My younger brothers and sister, Janelle, Bruce, Terry and Kent, knew them well.

I know that Velvet Ridge will miss both Sissy and Bud Dwight Fritts
