

A.H. Thomason

October 26, 2008

A. H. "Hoss" Thomason, 84, of Bald Knob, died Sunday, October 26, 2008 in Searcy. He was born February 11, 1924 in Bald Knob a son of the late William Vester and Morning Annie Merica Melinda Corbit Thomason. Hoss was a well-known area strawberry producer and had been involved in farming for nearly 52 years. In 2001, he was inducted into Bald Knob's "Strawberry Hall of Fame." He was known to be a very loving husband, father, grandfather and friend and was at his happiest when surrounded by his family.

He is survived by his wife of 61 years, Christine (Martin) Thomason; sons, Ronnie and Roddie Thomason both of Bald Knob; daughters, Dianne Zomant of Austin and Cheryl Tryon of Judsonia; daughter/granddaughter, Sammi Holland of Bald Knob; sisters, Frances (Cricket) Luttrell, Bera (Dude) Cullum and Gail Nelson all of Bald Knob; grandchildren, Robin Long, Tracie Stillwell, Kari Wells, Heather Hornbrook, Scott Thomason and Danielle Zomant; eleven great-grandchildren and numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Services will be held on Thursday, October 30, 2008 at 11:00 a.m. at the Powell Funeral Home Chapel with Bro. Thomas Piker officiating. Interment will follow in Shady Grove Cemetery with Bryant "Tubb" Long, Allen Tryon, Darren Stillwell, Darrell Glaze, Daniel Thomason and Ben Hornbrook serving as pallbearers. Arrangements are entrusted to Powell Funeral Home, Bald Knob - Judsonia. www.powellfuneralhome.net.