“ I remember our first date. She was the most beautiful woman I've ever seen so had to give her a good East Tennessee hug and let her know that. Anyway, we got into her car and went to a coffee shop down the road in Phoenix, where I was staying. She looked at me and I could tell she was just analyzing my soul and was asking me all kinds of questions. I didn't mind all the questions because it made me not have to think of a small talk topic and nervously say something stupid. After we finished some coffee we went to see jurassic park 3 at the movies. I spent the whole movie just thinking to myself how awesome this woman is. I was already falling for her, WHAT!??? She had that effect on me and I just hoped I could see her again. Lucky for me, I got to spend 3 1/2 very loving years trying to be the best man I could be for her. I didn't succeed all the time, but, she knew that I loved her more than life itself. I will always love her and look for her throughout the rest of my life. I will see her again some sweet day.

“ So many sweet memories of us at 12 and 13 years old. Making up dances to the spice girls....using the voice changer to try and scare her mom through the windows...sleepovers...dances...so many laughs. She was a light and a beautiful soul who has always left a positive light in my world. All of my love and support to her loved ones and her family. Truly a sad loss for everyone who held her dear.

“ I am so deeply sorry for your loss. Aimee was a delightful young lady. I knew Aimee in Show Low she was often at my home visiting my daughters. She was such a happy young lady with a vibrant personality she will always be thought of fondly.
