“ I am so sorry to hear about the loss of your dear loved one Amanda. Please accept my condolences during this painful time. Losing a loved one is distressing and as comfort is needed, it is my hope your family will find it comforting the promise at Isaiah 25:8 where we are assured that “death will be swallowed up forever.” It’s my hope your family will find strength to endure during the days ahead.

“ May God comfort each of the family members as you walk through this valley of the shadow of death. We did not know your Amanda, but we've had difficult times like you're going through right now. My wife and I lost have sons near the age of your Amanda and we cherish their memory just as you do of her. It's heartbreaking to lose a son, daughter, brother, cousin, or granddaughter. We are of the Christian faith and as we dealt with our pain we came to understand that God is still sovereign .

We've found that each person in the families has to grieve in their own way and own time, so we encourage each of you to be aware and allow that in the coming weeks. And also you may not think so in the next few weeks, but as time passes you will be able to think more on the good times that you had together and less about losing Amanda.

It is always good to hear people remember and name the one you've lost. Amanda will not be forgotten by friends and I hope they'll share their memories of her with you
