“ Jon, I think I share a lot of the same memories others have mentioned, Amy's laugh, her smiling face and her car. Who would've thought we'd all remember her in that car, especially with the lifetime of memories you have with her... I'm so very sorry for your loss. I can't imagine what you and your family must be going through. I pray for your peace and comfort during this time.

*Amy Laffoon Jackson, A Beautiful Child of God...
God Gains another Angel...
We lose a Sister, Daughter, Wife, Friend, Niece, Aunt,
A Beautiful Soul Sister in this lifetime...
What can I say...my heart is breaking open...*

*There is a brokenness
out of which comes the unbroken, a shatteredness
out of which blooms the unshatterable.
There is a sorrow
beyond all grief which leads to joy and a fragility
out of whose depths emerges strength.*

*There is a hollow space
too vast for words
through which we pass with each loss, out of whose darkness
we are sanctioned into being.*

There is a cry deeper than all sound whose serrated edges cut the heart as we break open to the place inside which is unbreakable and whole, while learning to sing.

“ Daivd & Suzanne, I was just browsing through this web site due to another friend's death and I was shocked to see that Amy passed away. I know it's been a year and I know it's still very painful. I just wanted to send you my condolences and I'm so sorry that you and Jon Paul are going through this.
