“ learning the loss of Andy Davis, was a shock to us. Not only was he our mechanic, but he was our friend, and therefore, we mourn with the family at this time...Andy was a gentle talking man and always cordial....We lift the family up in prayer because we know the bible states..weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning....God bless you all

“ Andy wasnt just an uncle he was like a big brother to me and all the neighborhood boys.He taught us how to ride a bike,motorcycle,go karts,cars and how to fix it when it broke. (Baseball)I bet he hit us at least a million pop flys from 1976-1986.He was making memories with us that we would never forget and we didnt have a clue. I bet he did.He stamped our hearts with so many memories over the years so we would remember him when this day come. Thanks for all the good times and always being there when I needed you. We Love ya and will see ya soon (And we thought we were Just Fishin)
