“ Do you remember when we first met I called you Fin for like two weeks until you one day nicely let me know Fin was your cat's name. Lol

Tuck man you are the greatest person I've ever known and I will miss you forever! You were always so kind to me and my family and Aydin and JB2 love you so much you were like an uncle to them. I am honored to have gotten to spend your last day with you. I am so glad you showed us how to use your new irrigation system Thursday and we will tend to your garden with the same love and care you tended to everyone you met. I will forever miss your friendly "Hey Morgan, how are you beautiful" you use to shout as you were walking to our house when we get home. I will never understand why you were taken away so soon but I will always strive to be a better person like you have shown me..... Until we met again my friend. XOXO

“ I was so shocked to hear about Andrew. I just spoke with him last month as he was running sound for the Attucks Jazz Series. He was a very active, dedicated student, and it was very clear to me that he loved what he was doing. Please let me know if there is anything the Music Department can do to help.

Sincerely,

“ Tuck was a great person, always cheerful, happy to be where he was, didn't complain about anything and always made anyone smile and laugh. Truly a great down to earth, big hearted person. He will be greatly missed by everyone! He love his bike and I wish I could have rode with you at least once. Now we will ride together every time! I miss you buddy!

“ Tuck will be greatly missed by everyone. I worked w/him on occasion w/the Virginia Symphony & Virginia Opera in production... he was a pleasure to work with & had a wonderful work ethic. I'm a musician as well & we were always chatting about recording engineering & music production, which he was truly passionate about. Good luck Tuck... Love ya!

“ I met Andrew about 3 years ago and knew instantly he was going to steal my heart. He worked for me at the Virginia Opera on many occasions and I had the pleasure of working with him through the Virginia Arts Festival. I always felt I could trust him no matter what. The morning after Tuck's accident, I had not yet heard that it had happened. I went to the grocery store and tried to pay for my groceries but my card declined. A beautiful little lady in line behind me spoke up. She said, I'll pay for it. I was so overwhelmed with joy that I just cried. She said, consider it a gift from God. Now I can't say what made that lady do what she did, but I was grateful. After I arrived home, I found out the news and all I could do was cry for a bit. Then I began to smile, and I simply decided it was Andrew telling me goodbye. It just seemed like the proper ending. He always had a big hug and a big smile for me every time I saw him and for me, that will be the thing I remember the most. I will miss him terribly.

“ What wonderful memories we have of him as a young man growing into adulthood. The awesome tenor sax player. He would come to our house and hang out with the other band members and friends and come to the band parties in our field. We went to all the band events and our daughter also played the sax so he was always around. Such a young age to be taken. Our thoughts and prayers are with all those who know him and my heart goes out at the loss of a young man that had his life in front of him. May God be with his family and friends and guide them through these difficult days. May God's love be with you Andrew "Tuck", you will be missed!

“ I've spent some time trying to find words to express the sadness I feel...sometimes they seem so inadequate. I have had the distinct pleasure of working with Tuck since...well, probably that same Wicked load in when Celeste met him. The only other words that come to mind are from a song by Randy Stonehill;

Some people say that faith is a tale made up by desperate men,

I shake my head and say this life is too short to play pretend

*Get ready to go,
don't forget your destiny.
Sing a song, carry on,
Know the best is yet to be.*

You are already greatly missed Tuck...my thoughts and prayers with your family.

“ We at Chalice Christian Church were so very sad to learn of the tragic death of this fine young man. Andrew was our sound geek (whom I found on Craigslist) and was responsible for updating our equipment and bringing our church into the 21st-century. Andrew was very proud of the transformation he created at this church and particularly happy with his use of the Vue audiotechnik speakers which he installed and promoted. I was delighted to have such an enthusiastic and nice guy helping us and I cannot say how sorry I am for this loss and his abbreviated life.

If the Tuck family and Kendall would like to hold another memorial service in Virginia Beach, we at Chalice will do whatever we can to help make that possible. We will hold you all in our thoughts and prayers and in our grief give thanks for the life of Andrew Tuck.

“ I have only knew Andrew for the last 8 years and have gotten to know him better in the last 2. I loved hearing the stories about the travels in the music business. You could tell he was very passionate about it because when you ask him about it, his eyes would light up and he would start talking. Him and Kendall would stop by our house when they came through NC and get a shower and a bite to eat, then off again on another adventure. I believe he has lived more in 24 years than I have in 57. God's speed my friend.

“ To the family of Andrew and for Kendall, Andrew "Tuck" was our Sound Tech for every one of our River Notes House Concerts in Norfolk, VA. His love of working the sound to be "just right" for every musician who came to play at our series will be missed. Words can't express the fun magical nights at our house with Tuck and Kendall. The entire RNHC audience will remember Tuck at our next show.

“ I first met Tuck at the load-in for WICKED at Chrysler Hall in Norfolk, VA. Andrew was on of the best guys you could ever meet. Funny, charismatic, friendly, outgoing, optimistic, and I'm proud to be able to call him my friend. He was there for me when I needed him most, and I know he would tell me to keep my chin up now.

Andrew, we love you and miss you more than words can say!

My heart goes out to his family and friends and love, Kendall. God Bless.

Love Always,
