“ Derek and Andrea words cannot express my sorrow for the loss of Anisha. When I heard about her death, my heart just felt so heavy. It was like I lost a piece of myself. I remember coaching her in the Little Shooters program. When she first came out to practice she was so timid and a little afraid of the ball. But, in the course of a few weeks, she begin to loosen up and start to enjoy basketball. She really listened to what I was trying to teach her about the basic skills of basketball. She had that one handed shot, and I told her to support the ball with both hands and then release it and shoot and follow through. Pretty soon she was shooting better. You should be very proud of your daughter and what you taught her over the years. Anisha was very sweet, polite, and always smiling whenever I saw her. She would go out of her way to come and speak to me. That made my day. I just wanted to share this memory of her with you to help you through the rough days and hopefully to put a smile on your faces and in your heart. I will miss her very much. Anisha was a joy to be around.
May God Bless you and keep you in perfect peace.

“ To the Phillips Family,

Even when the hurt run deeps, God?s love runs deeper. Sometimes in the saddest hours, we can't do anything but put our hand in His. Feel Him leading you now, and know that no matter what, you are safe. You are His. And He won't let you go. Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning. My deepest sympathy goes out to your family during this sad time. May God comfort and ease your sorrow.

“ To the Phillips Family

We are so, so very sorry for your loss. Anisha was a very sweet, funny, and polite girl. She never missed an opportunity to say hello, and ask how we were, and ask where was Allie?. I'm glad her and Allie were friends. We are thinking of you, and your family are in our prayers in this most difficult time.

Love,

Kenneth, Tammy, Matt, and Allison Hale
