

Ann Terry Bailey

June 30, 2015

Ann "Carolyn" Terry Bailey of Searcy went to be with our Lord and Savior on June 30, 2015 after battling a long illness. She was preceded in death by her parents, J. B. Terry and Ruth Terry Morris; a sister, Laverne Freeze; a brother, Don Terry; and a granddaughter, Lynley Crow. She is survived by her husband of 63 years, Frank M. Bailey of Searcy; one daughter and son-in-law, Terrian and Jeff Crow of Searcy, and one granddaughter and husband Ashley and Brian Robinson of Searcy.

Ann was born September 25 in Pine Bluff, Arkansas. She moved to Searcy in 1976 when Frank was transferred with Entergy. She was a bank teller at First National Bank, now Regions, for many years and a member of First Baptist Church of Searcy.

The family wishes to express great appreciation for the compassion and care Ann was given during her long hospital stays at Unity Health, LTAC and South Campus Rehab, and especially to The Crossing staff and Summit Hospice of Searcy where she spent her last days.

A memorial service will be held Monday, July 6 at Valley Baptist Church of Searcy at 2:00 p.m. Family will receive guests after the service. Interment will be a private family gathering. Memorials may be made to Summit Hospice Care, 403 S. Poplar, Searcy, Arkansas 72143. Family and friends may sign the online guestbook at powellfuneralhome.net. Cremation arrangements by Powell Funeral Home of Searcy.

“ To Frank, Terry Anne and Jeff:
I just learned of Anne's death and wanted to tell you as a friend, you all are in my thoughts and prayers. I have fond and loving memories of Anne and our years together at First Baptist Church in Searcy. Please know her life, and yours, are special gifts that I will treasure for the rest of my life. Rev. Paul Seal, pastor, Highland Christian Church (Disciples of Christ), Bella Vista, AR.

“ Ann you was one of the sweetest and most nicest people we have ever met. You had a special place in our hearts. My sister Carolyn got to know you through work at the bank and I got to know you when we took our kids to school you will be missed by many ones whose lives you touched. Our prayers are with your family Carolyn Blakey and Lynda Blakey
