“ *Dear Father,
Right now I cannot be consoled by any words, weeping over the loss of a loved one. I feel anger & dispairtha a loved oone has been taken away but I know the battle has already been won. Jesus through his death and resurrection has conquered death and we have eternal life. (John 3:15) but for now, I will not be comforted, perhaps tomorrow you can wipe away the tears. I know you understand dear Heavenly Father! (Isaiah 25:8).*

“ Betty Jean, Cecile, and family, Herbert and I send out sincere sympathy to each of you. Grandma Whitlow was one precious lady and Herbert & I loved her also. She will be missed by all who knew her, however I know she is celebrating with her Jesus and the family members who have gone before her. May God comfort your hearts with his fulfilling love. Herbert & Joan
