Anthony Andrew Taylor, born on September 30, 1995 left this world on May 25, 2025, at the age of 29. His untimely passing leaves a profound void in the hearts of all who knew and loved him.

Anthony was preceded in death by his beloved grandfather Benny Watson, his father Charles Louis Linhart, his stepfather Thomas Miller, and two cherished angel babies.

He is survived by his loving grandmother Maryland Watson who raised him, his mother, Robin Michelle Taylor, and his siblings: Angela DelToro, Jennifer Linhart, Timothy Linhart, Charles E. Linhart, Laura Stevens, Andrea Easley and Trevor Miller. He also leaves behind his fiancée, Jaime (Jay) Taylor, who held a special place in his heart.

Anthony was a kind-hearted and generous soul, known for his warm smile and quiet strength. A true enthusiast of classic craftsmanship, he enjoyed working on square-bodied trucks and felt the thrill of freedom on his motorcycle rides.

When not in the garage or on the road, he could often be found immersed in the world of video games, where he found both challenge and escape.

Anthony's presence was a source of comfort, laughter, and love to those around him. He will be remembered not only for the things he loved, but for the love he gave so freely.

His memory will be carried forward with grace and affection by those who knew him. He will be deeply missed and forever loved.
