“ Omg my precious baby girl im forever lost without you here. I'll never forget the night you came into your dad and my lives. Watching you grow into the beautiful woman and amazing loving mother you were to both your children. You loved them unconditionally and wanted what was best for them. I can't believe your life was take at such an early age. This is killing me and the hardest thing I've ever had to go through. I'm missing you my sweet little man. I know that God thought it was best for you to go on with your mother because you were her little man. I will see you both again one day when it is my time to cross over but until then my life will never be the same. This pain I'm feeling is so unbearable and so unknown help me to get through this. Mom and grandma FerDonna loves you both so much. I promise to do what ever I can to let your memories of your love you have for Kora your sweet little girl that for some reason was left behind. It's gonna be a hard tough road for her to over come but if we all can come together and put all the love we have inside us for our love for you we will let her see how much of you she has inside of her already she is her mother made over. God I just don't understand I can see your face, your smile, hear your voice just as you are right here. We have to be strong and only through God's Grace is how this devastation is how we will ever over come. I love you both unconditionally for all eternity your loving mother
