

Austin Lane Adams

December 31, 1994 - August 17, 2019

Austin Lane Adams, 24, of Bald Knob, passed from this life on Saturday, August 17, 2019 in Patterson, New Jersey. Austin was born December 31, 1994 in Searcy and was a 2014 graduate of White County Central. Bull riding was Austin's passion. While in junior high school, he was co-state champion and ranked 15th nationally. His personality could light up a room and he had a knack for brightening any day with his charm and sense of humor. Austin was employed in pipeline construction as an X-ray helper and was a member of Local IUOE 112 as well as Local 798. He attended the Velvet Ridge Church of God. The most important thing in Austin's life was his son, Laramie Lane. The love and bond those two shared was immeasurable. Austin and Laramie were able to have many adventures together as they traveled the country for work. A GoFundMe account has been established "Benefits for Laramie Lane Adams." The proceeds raised will help Laramie with medical expenses, school and any activities he sees interest in.

He is survived by his son, Laramie Lane Adams; wife, Kursten Adams; mother, Gina Adams; father, Andy Adams; sisters, Jodi Dicus and Ashley Ellis; brother, Brandon Thompson; grandparents, Jack and Sherry Feagin and Dallas and Claudia Walmsley; 4 nephews; 3 nieces; 1 great-nephew; 4 aunts and 2 uncles. He was preceded in death by his paternal grandparents, A.L. Adams and Patsy Piper.

Visitation will be held Friday from 6:00 - 8:00 p.m. at Powell Funeral Home in Bald Knob. A celebration of Austin's life will be Saturday, August 24, 2019 at 2:00 p.m. at the Velvet Ridge Church of God. Arrangements are entrusted to Powell Funeral Home, Bald Knob – Judsonia. www.powellfuneralhome.net.

“#Teachers! RIP Dear Austin My heart is heavy as yet another former student will be laid to rest today. He is not there. Memories are so very precious. Time is unpredictable. I post this to share that as a teacher, I loved every student who walked the hallways of campus: the wealthy or poor, the tall or short, the black or white or green or yellow, the thin or heavy, the clean or dirty, the ones for whom learning came easily and for those who struggled.... God called me to a magnificent profession. I wonder if the students know how much I love them and what a difference they made in my life?! As dear Austin Adams has gone on to be with the Lord, my prayers are with his family who experience the deepest and most profound grief imaginable. Was he saved? Yes, he was. We talked about God more than once. He is in good hands, walking and talking I am sure to anyone in heaven who will listen. When he was a senior, there was more than one late night call (11:00-2:00) when he was traveling and needed someone to talk with to stay awake on the lonesome roads he traveled as he rodeoed around the country. I gave him “what for” the next morn when he showed up at 8:00 am too, as I had bags under my eyes yet he was full of that spunk he always had. I loved him. He was a sweetheart who could annoy me yet make me smile at the same time. Thanks, Austin, for the memories! His heart was one that he never met a stranger, never let anyone feel alone, and never left anyone out. He walked to the beat of his own drummer. Please know that we teachers love our students and love watching them grow into fine young men and women who work hard, have their own families, and follow their dreams. Austin Adams Class of 2014 RIP, Cowboy! I never say goodbye, only that I’ll be seein’ ya! ❤️ + 🙏 +”

“ We did not know Austin , but we regret your loss and sorrow. My wife and I have lost sons a little younger than him and we want you to know that you can endure this pain as you go through the "valley of the shadow of death." We found great comfort in our Christian faith even though we struggled with the pain and loss. We found that each person grieves in a unique way and time, so we encourage you to recognize and allow that in your family. As time passes you will be able to recall times of happiness with your Austin that will help you deal with the loss. I hope that friends will share with you their memories of the good times with him.
