“ So Sorry for your loss Peggy! It seems you never get over losing your mom, at least I never have. Your mom was a lovely woman. I only remember being at her home one time when I met up with you all in Bald Knob. But I've never forgotton what a gracious hostess she was & how lovely and welcoming her home was! Especially her pretty table settings. May god be with you and comfort you at this time!

“ I know words cant make the grieving process any less painful. But do know that I am carrying much empathy in my heart for you all. You may be wondering who I am and exactly how you are related to me. I am the daughter of Elder & Glenda Hart. Who I am also remembering this month on the 4th & 15th.
My deepest sympathies, Yolanda Hart-James
