“ I will always remember her beautiful "laughing" voice, her loving smile, and encouraging embraces. Every day I saw her she lifted my spirit -- and I found it easier to see the little positives life offers up and enjoy those moments given. I hope her voice will always prod me to live life to the fullest and absorb all it offers. I will try to pass on her love to all I encounter -- especially the children. (When I hug the ones that were hers (though a short time @ FBWS), I will do it with a little "Barbara" everytime I embrace them -- she loved on them so and they missed her terribly:(

I know the Lord is enjoying her in heaven as well as all who are there -- all enjoying her "light";) --Someday we will meet again my precious friend. And thank you Lord for the opportunity to meet your special child, Barbara and all the moments we shared. Bless all her loved ones.

“ When I think of Barbara I also see and hear that beautiful laugh and smile!! Worked with her many years ago and we bowled together many years ago...I still laugh about those days!! James and I sang in yalls wedding Doug, never forget the day! She was and has been so happy! I will miss the opportunity to see that smile again here, but will one day I know see it again! Love and Prayer for the family!

“ Memories of Barbara, first working with her at Burlington Industries, always a smile on her face. Later, ballgames watching Zack play ball, great cheerleader. Keep your precious memories up front in your heart and minds and they will bring a smile to your face. May God the Father guide you and comfort you at this time and forever. Love to all you.
