“ My memory of Kent bunker goes as far back as my entire childhood. Every summer, sometimes every other month on the weekends we would drive in from Illinois and Kent, Daryl and Sherry and the rest of my kinfolk that still lived on my grandparents Farm accepted me like lived there. That being said I've always considered can't and the rest of my cousins as my best friends weather we saw each other every day or not. I have memories of us doing things together that go as far back as I can remember. Get bunker was and still is in my heart one of my best friends even though our adult lives took us in many different directions and we got to see each other less and less, he will be still considered one of my best friends and will be truly, truly missed. Have a safe journey my good friend and tell everyone I said hey when you see them, for you are not going alone because you're taking a piece of my heart and my memories with you. Safe journey my good friend for we will meet again one day.
