As many of you may know, our friend Ben Kelley has passed away due to unexpected medical issues. Ben left behind a wife and two young children. He was loved by many and had a heart for everyone he met, but above all, Ben loved God. There have been many people ask how they can help. By sending money through this link, you will be directly assisting with necessary costs that accompany such a tragedy. While we cannot relieve the emotional turmoil that this family is experiencing, we can help relieve some of the financial stresses. If you are unable to donate, but would still like to help, please pray for this family.

A memorial account is being set up at Citizen's Bank and all money donated through this link will go directly into that account and given to the family. If you have any questions or concerns, you can contact Danae Martin at 501-388-4060 or Meagan Fennell at 870-834-3627 and we will help you out.

“ My biggest memory is you displaying your patience and love to Madison, explaining to her how to be saved. She had asked Jesus to come into her heart, but just wasn't feeling like He answered her. I thank you for explaining assurance of salvation. Madison is so much more happier now. God saw what you did, and I know you have a reward for it.

We will miss you greatly, but have comfort in knowing we will see you again.

We love you, big guy.
