“ God saw her getting tired, a cure was not to be. So he wrapped her in his loving arms and whispered come with me. She suffered much in silence, her spirit did not bend She faced her pain with courage, until the very end She tried too hard to stay with us, her fight was all in vain God took her to his loving home, and freed her from all the pain!God Bless You All!

“ Sylvia and family, I'm so very sorry for the loss of your mother; although I didn't know her, she must've been some kind of woman to have had great kids as she did. May she rest in peace and comfort come to all.

“ No need to worry
God has it in control,
Just look up above
To His mercies untold
He really does know
The grief you're going through,
He knows it firsthand
Because He has been there too
