“ So many memories of Bettye Jo as we grew up in Providence. We had good times together, and a few good cries too. In our teen years we would go to the Sunday afternoon movie in Kensett in Bettye's car. J.M. and Hazel would tell us to stay off the highway as much as possible so we would go through Judsonia, cross the bridge and on to the gravel road to get there. If we didn't have gas money (which was fairly often) J.M. would let us use just a little of his farming gas, but he made sure we understood this 'borrowing' couldn't happen without his permission. These special memories make me smile today. - - Bettye was a sweet person. One of the things I remember most about her was she did not talk badly about folk - ever. She was loved and will be missed. Condolences to her family, especially to Lee, Nena, Hazel, and those grand and great grands she cherished so.

“ I recall a lot of fun times when Bettye and I were teenagers. There were several of us who would get together after church on Wednesday nights. She was always so much fun and boy could that girl dance. Love you Bettye you will be missed.

“ Betty Jo loved her dogs. 2014 she had two. She heard that I had been looking for one for company. She offered me this kinda ugly black mixed breed named Max. He turned out to be perfect for me. Betty Jo came To visit him once about a year after he came to live with me. That Dog went nuts with happiness when she got out of the car. He ran in circles around her then dropped on his back for belly scratching. I think Max knew what kind of person she was. I counted Betty jo as a very dear friend and Max did too. Love you, Betty Jo.

“ Nena ms Bettye was one of the best women I have ever known. I have asked her advice about law enforcement and life in general. Be proud to call her mom and never forget she loved you and your family dearly.

“ I met Betty Jo in 1965 when I moved to Providence. She soon became a good friend. One thing that I remember the most about her and she lived by this, "If you can't say something nice, then say nothing at all" . She was a "good" person by anyone's standards. She will be missed by all who knew her. Prayers for the family as they learn to live without their beloved Betty Jo....Linda (Hill)
