“ Betty was very special to the Brannum family, she was a wonderful friend & neighbor to my Mom (Ruby MeHarg). We'll always remember her beautiful flowers (she certainly had a green thumb) & her most welcoming smile. Our prayers are with the family during this very difficult time.

“ Inez was a longtime friend and Freda visited Betty together with Billie Dewberry and Inez whenever we could. We had so many good times and laughed until our sides hurt. Betty was so talented and we will miss her. We always came up for the Strawberry Festival and High School Reunion where a good time was had by all.

“ What a treasure you were. How I have loved you over the years. As one other person commented, you were mom to many, including me. You loved me unconditionally and for who I was. If any one ever reflected the face of Jesus, it was you. Your tender heart, loving care and concern for others. You were a servant to many. My heart is broken to loose you.

Mark, Steve, Jeff, Scott, Judy, Joel and Pam..... I am so sorry for your loss. I am so sorry that I can not be there for you. I want to so badley. My cousin's daughter passed away Wednesday night and last night my husband's cousin past away. Please know that I loved your mother and family.

I spoke with Dee today and told him of your mom's passing. He was so sad also. I have lost everyone there now from that generation accept one uncle. I don't know when I will be that way again but, I will look for you if and when I come.

Again, my heart is broken. I loved your mother so much.

*Love,
Debbie*

“ My condolences to the family of Betty Mason. She was a cheerful, kind, encouraging person. I first met her about 2004 when I was invited to her apartment to meet some other friends and Ruth Inez(Cathy)Arnold-Wymer, a Fritts 3d cousin of mine. We visited awhile and then went to the Market Cafe to eat. I saw Betty several times at Strawberry Fest week. One time, she agreed to go with me to a Cox Family Reunion in Velvet Ridge. That Mason-Johnson-Cox family & we are related thru the W.D. & Harriet Mason ancestors of Velvet Ridge. We enjoyed the singing, eating, & fellowship. Betty & I knew other people that were there. Last time I saw Betty was July 17,2010 on my way home from Doyle Mason's Fish Fry. I stopped at her apartment briefly at Sycamore Terrace and her grandson, Heath Mason was there. I am sorry I was not able to attend the services for Betty. As she does, I have a home prepared in heaven for me where we will meet again. May God comfort all her family in their time of grief. Abiding in Him, Cousin Charlene Fritts-Meredith
