“ Mary,
He sees you, he loves you, he treasures every little thing about you..... He and only he understands the pain you feel... we are lifting you in our prayers every minute of every day, I would love to be whatever whenever you need me to be... There has always been a special feeling since the time we met I believe it is because we are sisters in the Lord..... I have pictures of Jenna and Bill he was her very first love... I will make copies if you would like...Please email me anytime I would love to pray with you if not I will continue to pray for you... we love you Tammy, Hillary and Jenna
