“ Bill, I am sorry to hear of the passing of your dad. I'm sorry to have also learned of the passing of your mom and brother Brent. I enjoyed having you boys in my classes, and your mom as a teacher colleague. May God grant a blessing to you as you go through the coming days and weeks. May God's powerful Hand sustain you through the days ahead.

“ Dr. O, as I affectionately called him, was so gracious and kind to me when I first started teaching. Our friendship grew over the years and came to know him as a really good friend. I loved Dr. O and I will never forget our times together in the Science Building, at church, and other places. One of his self-deprecating jokes he used to say as he got older was that he was no longer a "New"ham but just an "Old"ham. I bet he would say to me now, "Rags, I'm a "New"ham once again!!! RIP Dr. O!!!

“ In the fall of 2015, I took my mom to your parents’ house for a sibling reunion with your parents, Jim & Clara, and Dwight & Jan. It was a great weekend full of laughter and music. Unfortunately, Mom became ill and had to be hospitalized in Searcy, so I stayed another week with your parents while Mom recovered in the hospital. It was a very special time for me. After staying with Mom all day, I was welcomed back to your parents’ home by Monda’s scrumptious cooking (she fried okra every night just because it was my favorite) and many deep conversations with your dad about faith and family. Uncle Bill was naturally curious, always had a quick quip and a sharp sense of humor, had the Oldham musical gift, and most importantly, he loved God and his family deeply. He will be missed, but what a joy to know that he’s with your mom and Brent and the rest of the family.

I’m sad to say that Tommy and I won’t be able to be at the service on Thursday, but we will be holding you all close in our hearts and prayers and send our love.
