*Mike and Stan,
Both your mom and dad were good friends with my folks for many years but especially in the last couple of years of my dad's life, your dad was most loyal to my dad. He was at the hospital when dad had his last surgery. He visited dad at home when dad could no longer get out. He cheered dad up when dad was sad about his health. He was a true friend and true friends are both rare and precious. We are thankful dad had such a friend.*
