

Billy Cecil Wilson

November 20, 1934 - March 7, 2021

Sunday, March 7, 2021, Billy Cecil Wilson, of Steprock laid his working hands to rest and went to be with the Lord. He devoted his life to his family and their farm. Many days were spent working endless hours, but always finding time to “aggravate” his kids and or grandbabies. He was known far and wide for his brute strength and man did he love to “show off” and prove he was stronger than the next! He set an example for all to follow, but shoes no one can ever fill. As so many loved ones before him, his days grew long and tiresome. As family gathered around his bed Sunday evening, we held his hands and shed bittersweet tears, as we encouraged him to let us go and reach for Jesus’ hands.

Billy was born November 20, 1934 in Gould, Arkansas to the late Clair and Rachael (Knight) Wilson. He was preceded in death by his wife, Lurene (Crandall) Wilson; daughter, LaJuan House and four siblings, Marlene Wilson, Aubrey Wilson, Norma Dell (Wilson) Reynolds, and Catherine (Wilson) Houser.

He is survived by his daughter, Peggy (Wilson) Louks; son, William Wilson (Rhonda); son-in-law, Jerry Michael House; three grandsons, Andrew House, Cody Louks (Tina) and Will Wilson; two granddaughters, Alison (Louks) Davis and Ashley Wilson; as well as 10 great-grandchildren, Dalton and Drew House, Slayton, Ryder and Zayne Davis, Alexia, Khalan and Falyn Louks and Olivia and Chloe Wilson.

In lieu of flowers memorial donations can be made to St. Jude's: www.stjude.org or Arkansas Children's Hospital: www.archildren.org.

Visitation will be Sunday, March 14, 2021 from 1:00-2:30 p.m., at the Powell Funeral Home in Bald Knob. Graveside services will follow in the Providence Cemetery at 3:00 p.m. Arrangements entrusted to Powell Funeral Home Bald Knob-Judsonia. www.powellfuneralhome.net

“ To Helen and me, Billy was a special friend--"Pa Billy" to her, and to me he was just "Billy" To him she was "Preacher Lady" and I was just "Preacher." We attended church with him for many years. When we arrived at church, he was already there and got up to greet Helen with a hug and me with a handshake. Helen says, "I will always miss his hugs." As we arrived for evening worship, he would be walking across the yard from his house, usually with several family members. When he left worship, he would usually say, "Good one, preacher" or "I love you preacher." He often had questions about what he had read in the Bible the previous week or just shared what he had learned. When we visited their home, he always requested that we stand in a circle, hold hands, and pray. Billy and Lurene, and all of their family, are just family to us. We miss him! May God bless this good family, and may you always love and trust God and lean upon Him!

“ Our Love to you all, we will miss our dear friend Billy Wilson. His friendship and hugs will always be a treasure to us. He was more than a friend, we consider you all our extended family. We have shared so many happy times together, but by his own testimony we know he is rejoicing with all who went before him. Our lives are happier by sharing a special love with he and Lorene. God Bless You all during this difficult time, but we know your all blessed to know you will see him again. Thinking of you all. Love you, Gary and Anita Duncan.
