“ Steve, Dedra, Kalyn and Chase,

There are no words that we can say to take away the pain, but our comfort comes from the Lord. Prayers for you all as you wake up everyday and do life. Prayers for peace, comfort and grace be yours. Blake touches many lives and although he touched ours at a younger age, it's evident by whats been said that he remained the same sweet, respectful, funny and talented young man that we knew all the years ago. Prayers go with you everyday!

“ Steve, Dedra, Kalyn, and Chase,

Our thoughts and prayers are with you. Blake was such a stellar guy. Always had a smile on his face. So genuine, talented, funny, loyal and faithful. He was a great soccer teammate to Allen, and was so welcoming to Allen when we moved to Bentonville in 2004. We were so saddened to hear that Blake had been sick and passed away on Saturday. Our hearts are heavy, but we know that Blake is in Heaven now with our Lord and Savior.

Much love to you, and we will continue praying for you.

“ Dear Steve and Dedra and family,
Our hearts break for you in this tremendous loss. Though we haven't been in contact in a very long time, we share history with Blake and Aaron being little boys together at Bentonville Church of Christ, and with your great support to us in the adoption of our children. Our love and prayers go out to you that you may feel God's comfort and healing.
