“ i remember every saturday amber and I went over to granny's, she would make these AMAZING waffles. She would butter them for us and she made extra just in case we wanted more later on in the day. Everytime she would make them she would yell at poppy "NICK! I NEED A NEW WAFFLE MAKER!" it was so funny. Amber and I would just bust out laughing. Whenever I stayed the night in the living room, she would wake up and put an extra blanket on me just so I wasn't cold. i miss her so much! -carlie zentz

“ Bonnie Lavern Hickey: probably the most caring and loving woman I know. She always cared for her family. She was that kind of woman that everyone wanted to be around. And I know we all loved it when she came over at 8am to see if we were awake. Bonnie was the most caring woman out there. I remember one time when I was sick and granny was there for me. She would get me medicine and help me to the bathroom when I needed to puke. I remember almost every Sunday morning when I was at her house, we would wake up and she would make me waffles. Her waffles here the best. Every time I ate them it always made me so tired. Bonnie Lavern was a very loving and forgiving woman. You could do her so wrong, and she would still want you to come over and she would still want to call you. One of my favorite memories with my granny was when she would ask me to rub her feet. She would always want me to put lotion on her feet. When she was in the hospital this last time, I pulled up a chair beside her and just held her hand. I remember the last words I told her was, "Granny I love you and if you ever need me or want to talk just called me." She will forever be in my heart and I will love and miss her dearly. Granny, thank you for raising me as a child and being there for me. I love you.
