“ Leah, Jeff, and Anthony,
Bill and I were just in shock, hearing about Brad's passing. We were so saddened to think of the loss and to try to imagine the pain and sorry you all feel. We both remembered the love you all had for each other when we worked with you as the boys were going through school. Brad and Anthony both hold a special place in our hearts. You are all in our thoughts and prayers.

“ I knew Brad through work, where I had the privilege of being his dental hygienist. I saw him only a few weeks ago. I have always thought he was such a sweet guy and as a mother of two boys of my own my heart goes out to you and your family. You are in our prayers. Angie Burkett

“ Jeff, I can't begin to imagine the grief you and your family have right now. Please know that you are in our prayers and as difficult a time as this is, God is bigger than the heart aches and grief and He WILL get you through this. It seems like every story you told us at break always had something to do with your kids. I never met Brad or Anthony but just by hearing you talk about them I know they are everything to you and Leah. Everone at work is very saddened by your loss and we are all praying for you.

“ Leah and Jeff We wanted you to know you all are in our thoughts and prayers. Words seem so few and so hollow right now, to be able to offer comfort and support. I remember Brad playing football with John and seeing their pictures on your desk at work, knowing you are such a proud and caring momma. love you and pray the Lord will comfort you during time of sorrow. “ Leah, Jeff and Anthony,
I am so sorry to hear of Bradley's passing. My heart goes out to all of you. You are in my thoughts and prayers. I have not seen Bradley since he was a young boy but after visiting with you on my last trip to Arkansas, a couple months ago, and hearing how much Larry and mom thought of Bradley, I know he was a very special young man. In writing this I keep thinking of the time you and I had that yard sale and Ashlee and Bradley were our little helpers. Love,
Melissa

“ Leah & Jeff & Anthony:

We are so sorry to hear about Brad, Brad was a special young man. The Lord has a huge plan for him. May the good Lord bless you in this time of need. We remember Brad as a little boy looking at the girls and getting caught with Kenny. He is a good boy and will continue in the light to be a good son. Our hearts go out to you at this time and just know that you are in our prayers and in our hearts. We will never forget the good times that we had with you. There is a big part of our lives and hearts that have always held the Speer family dear. We love you and pray for you. We will always remember Brad and keep him in our hearts as we would with all the family. Take this time as a time to reflect and bring you closer as a family. Remember that the Lord loves you as we do. Love Terry, Darla, Kenny, Jon and James Gather

“ I had just met Bradley and his granddad Oliver Speer last week where I purchased a travel trailer from them. I was surprised to see the article in the paper of his passing.

I myself have a son his age and can not even imagine what I would do if I was in the boat your are in. Please know that my family is saddened for your great loss and know that we are praying for you plus I have placed your family's name on our church prayer list to have other Christians praying for you in the time of grief.
