“ Brandon was a best friend nearly my whole life. We could fish everyday growing up and it still wasn't enough. All the things we went thru together would be a list longer than any website could even hold. My heart is heavy losing a true friend and brother. Prayers for all.

“ We are so sorry for your loss. We loved Brandon and will always cherish the memories we had with him when he and Darrell stayed with us. He was such a sweet boy and always offering to help with anything he could. You all are in our thoughts and prayers. So sorry we can't make it to Arkansas. RIP Bub.

“ We did a lot of fishing together over the years, and caught a lot of fish. There's not enough space here to tell all of the good fishing stories.

“ I'll never forget the time we was all up at mom and dads, I'm thinking Christmas, Brandon was only about 7 or 8 I'm not sure, we were all playing Monopoly and I was winning big time, I started saying, I vant it all, I vant it all, like Ivania Trump, Brandon started laughing so hard, we were in tears, I'll never forget that special time ”
