“ Mom, that would be the best word I could use to describe what u meant to me.....u treated Fred & I like we were one of the kids and Connor & Caden will both miss their Aunt Brenda so much!!! You were very much like a Nana to them, but we know u would never be OLD enough for that name! Lol so u were Aunt Brenda instead! I'll miss your wonderful smile & mischievous laugh...like u always knew a secret we didn't....u would do anything for us....including "black our eye" if we needed it!!! we could always come to u for a shoulder to cry of lean on and we respected ur opinion, even if it was something we didn't want to hear, or just come sit on the couch & watch "our shows" without saying a word!! We always knew no matter what happen, we had a place to go if we needed it!! We will NEVER forget all the things u taught us & we will make u proud of us! I promise to do everything I can to be there for B, Caleb & Brain, and to make sure Connor & Caden never forget what a wonderful Aunt/ godmother they had as they grow older. I love you so much....we all do. RIP sweet woman. All our love, Angel, Fred, Connor & Caden.

“ i'm so sorry it took me so long to reply but no one told me were Brenda was laid to rest or when the memorial would be. i've been out of touch because of the military. Brenda is loved and missed. She had such a love for those around her and cared for and loved all. people were just drawn to her laughter.
