“ Brenda was not only my neighbor but the best friend i ever had. She never turned her back on me no matter what. SHe told me once i was her life line but the truth was she really was mine. my life line has been lost since shes gone. my life will never be the same without her to hold me up. she told me i was one of her sisters but i never knew losing someone can hurt so much and the pain never goes away. now i know how much she missed her dad. i can only picture them up in heaven now toghter holding hands and laughing and smiling. thats what gets me through the days without her. i wish i could have gone with her but i know she will be there with open arms as she always was when i go to be with her again.my life is but a empty shell now and always will be without her. there will never or ever has been anyone like her. brenda i love you with all my heart and soul. until we see each other again- love Debbie
