

Brenda Fay Walker

February 24, 1944 - September 23, 2019

Brenda Fay Walker, 75, of Bald Knob, died Monday, September 23, 2019. She was born February 24, 1944 in Bradford to the late Virgil and Bertha Gurtrue (Yarberry) Walker. Brenda was a very strong woman, loving and caring mother, sister and grandmother. She attended the Bradford Assembly of God. When she was first diagnosed with cancer she told her doctors and family "I'm not scared." She had a great spirit full of laughs. She will be missed and loved from all who knew her.

She is survived by her children, Barbara Hoffman of Bald Knob, Mike Young (Sherry) of Bald Knob, Carrie Collison of Bald Knob, Jerry Young (Susan) of Georgia, and Peggy Siler (Chad) of Bald Knob; siblings, Calvin, Gary and Tommy Walker (Judy) all of Bald Knob, Cecil Walker (Wanda) of Bradford, Troy Walker (Judy) of Jasper and Linda Hawkins (Tim) of Bald Knob; nephew, Dustin Walker of Nashville and Terry Walker of Judsonia; niece, Tina Bryant (Timothy) of Bradford, with whom she was very close, as well as many very special nieces who loved her dearly; 15 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

She is preceded in death by her parents, a daughter, Glenda Pearrow, brother, Larry Walker; niece, Kristie Walker and son-in-law, Joe Collison. The family will have a memorial service at 10:30 a.m., Saturday, Sept. 28 at the Bradford Assembly of God. Flowers can be delivered to the church Friday from 3:00-7:00 p.m. Cremation arrangements entrusted to Powell Funeral Home Bald Knob-Judsonia. www.powellfuneralhome.net
