“ We will miss you Dad, but we thank you for the funny jokes and the great fishing memories you shared with my husband and I on our trips to Arkansas. We will see you again and we look forward to that day. You will be greatly missed by your Great Grandchildren Eden & Guy Mcdonald II Oh how I wish they could have met you, but you live on through their grandfather, your son my beloved husband your son, Thank you for him he is our greatest treasure. God Bless. We love you and will miss you so much.

“ Miss you grandpa I'm sorry you didn't get to know your great grand children, RayRay, Arianna, and Lucas. RayRay is five years old, Arianna is 1 in half years old, and Lucas is 2 in half years old now. I remember when we went to walmart, and we bought stuff it was the fun times. Chrissy and I loved the snapping turtles our dad always teased us about them he said go catch one to bring home. We love you grandpa hope you love heaven and I know your smiling down on us right now.
