

Carl Dean Beavers, Sr.

October 28, 1931 - October 6, 2022

Carl Dean Beavers, Sr., 90, of Searcy, died peacefully Thursday, October 6 with family by his side. He was a coach, business owner, veteran and an avid athlete. Carl played basketball at Arkansas State Teacher's College (UCA) on an athletic scholarship. College is also where he met his wife Johnnie Huie, the mother of his five children and love of his life for over 70 years. Left to cherish his memory are Johnnie Beavers (wife), and sons Carl Beavers, Jr. and wife Azita, John Beavers, and daughters Karm Prock and Dr. Toni Beavers, grandchildren Jonathan and wife Tessa, Caroline, Casey Blakeman and husband Josh, Dr. Chaney Black and husband Daniel, LTJR Hayden May, and MIDN Henry May. He also was blessed with four great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents Eugene and Emma Sue (Bradley) Beavers and daughter Tina Daniel.

Carl was born on October 28, 1931 in Clinton, Arkansas. Carl graduated from Clinton High School in 1949 and spent 2 years in the US Army as a military policeman. He then attended ASTC (UCA) earning a degree in education. He worked as a coach and high school teacher and then started his own business. His passion for athletics and youth drove him to referee and coach many different sports, positively contributing to the community of White County. Carl was an active member of the Lion's Club and volunteered for fellow Veterans and was a member of the College Church of Christ. He loved spending time talking about sports and his favorite teams, Arkansas

Razorbacks and St. Louis Cardinals.

“ Johnnie, it is so sad that you have joined me in losing a great husband. My Rodger died just a few weeks ago and now your Carl has passed. There were no better men than our husbands. My prayers are with you and your wonderful family.
