“ Jay,

I am so sorry to learn of your mom's death. I know how hard it is to lose your mom. You are truly in my thoughts and prayers. I was on vacation last week and actually was near Searcy. My condolences to you and your family.

May God Bless you all!

“ I have a lot of good memories of Carol Ann, starting from the years we were in Junior Auxiliary. Her presence always meant a fun time, wherever she was.

My children, especially Melanie and Lisa Lowery, send their condolences to Carol Ann's family and especially to her sons. May it help a little to know that your loved one lives on the memories of so many.
