“ I was saddened to learn of Carole's death When I first came to WAHS after being at PVCC, it was Carole I first met who helped me with all the ins and outs of being a new teacher at WAHS. It wa snive to know I had seen her before as her husband had been at PVCC when I had. She was also very sympathetic in my divorce years going from an Eades to Wells. she was one of the warmest poeple I have met My prayers are with the family.

“ Mr. Owen, Sarah Katherine, Walter, and Gordon, Just want you all to know what an honor it was for me to know Carole. I will keep thinking I have to call and check on her for a long time-it will not be right not talking to her !! She really seemed like my "second Mom" to me but when I would say that she would say -how about you say "older sister" ! Only Carole would have taken the time to be with me through every Chemo treatment I had in 07 and say I was helping her by keeping her busy and she was not helping me !! She was the most elegant lady I have ever met and I will cherish our friendship the rest of my life !! Please let me know if there is anything I can do and know I Love You All and you are all in my thoughts and prayers !! Carol Marshall

“Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted, (Matt. 5: 4). Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, The Father of mercies and God of all comfort. Who comforts us in all our tribulations, that we may be able to comfort those who are in any trouble, with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God. (II Cor. 1: 3-4)

Carole is happy now and feel no more pain. The Golden Gate paved with Gold is her entrance to our heavenly Father Jesus Christ and from there she will watch over you now and forever more. She loved you greatly and wish you to carry on in her absence and remember all the good times you shared together.

Bill, you also have to know that Carole was not just your mate in marriage, but your true true soul mate for life. She loved you greatly and to the end that love went with her. Even from her heavenly entrance, she is looking upon you with that same love. Feel her present around you every minute, second and hour, for she will be there to guide and comfort you.

I pray for you and your family in your hour of comfort. I pray that God will lift you up and that you continue to believe in him the almighty the Son of God the Father.

Love you.

“ Bill, I'm sure you know how much I liked and admired Carole. I have thought a lot the last few days about many of the lovely stories you have shared about Carole and your wonderful family. My deepest sympathies are with you all.

I am so sorry that I will not be able to attend the service in Crozet, but I will be out of town until Sunday evening. I hope to talk with you soon.

“ With fond memories of my 1964 English class with Carole. Our teacher was "Mr. Owen." As a widow, myself, I truly understand the aspects of the surviving spouse. My heartfelt sympathy to the entire family.
