

Carolyn L Kittrell

April 4, 1933 - March 18, 2026

Carolyn Love Whitmore Kittrell of Augusta, Arkansas, age 92, died peacefully Wednesday, March 18, 2026. She was born on April 4, 1933, in Memphis, Tennessee, to Boise Edward and Freeda Love Whitmore. She is survived by daughters Carol Ann Logue and her husband Edward of Orlando, FL, Martha Lynn Schutzman and her husband Lendel of Ruston, LA, as well as four grandchildren, nine great grandchildren, and twelve nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her husband John B. Kittrell Jr., son John B. Kittrell III, and sister Kathryn Marino.

Carolyn grew up in Beebe and Augusta, Arkansas where her father served as the superintendent of schools and her mother was a teacher and music instructor. She graduated from high school in Augusta as valedictorian of her class along with her future husband, John B. "Benny" Kittrell, who was salutatorian. They both attended the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville where Carolyn received a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration degree in 1955.

From Fayetteville, she moved to Van Buren, Arkansas, where Benny served as a county extension agent. In 1960, she moved to Gregory, Arkansas, when Benny took over managing the Kittrell family farm.

Growing up in a family of educators, the love for and value of learning was instilled in her early. Realizing she wanted to pursue a career in education, she attended Harding University where she obtained a Bachelor's in Elementary Education followed a few years later by a Master's in Reading
