so sorry to hear about Carolyn we love all of y'all just seen Carolyn in the family dollar. We talked for awhile talked about how we needed to visit. i am sorry that we never got to do that.

We are praying for peace and strength in this difficult time. i know how it is to trust God in hard times sometimes it is difficult but he will never forsake us and when we are weak he is strong.

We will always love y'all and James, Eddie and Barbara

“ My heart is broken for this precious family. About three wks ago I talked to Carolyn at the library. The last thing I said to her was " I love you". I praise God, in not knowing how short her time was here, I have her precious face engraved in my heart's memory as she said " I love you too".

I am so sorry to hear this news. Carolyn and I worked for the same company for many many years. She was such a hard worker and came to my office so that we could visit very often. I am sorry for her friends, family and mostly her beautiful grandchildren.

I was deeply saddened to learn of Carolyn's passing. Though we are 2nd cousins, I had not seen Carolyn since we were children. I remember her beautiful smile. It saddens me to know life sometimes gets in the way of being as close as we should be, since life on this earth is so short. It's my prayer that the entire extended family finds peace during this time of sorrow.
