“ I've known Lee for over 20 years. I worked with him during his years as a truck driver and have been friends ever since. He and Jo used to go out to country dances with my aunt and uncle back in the day as well. Fine people. Rest well, Lee.

“ To the family of Carthel Lee Phipps, I would like to offer my deepest condolences. Not only were we classmates in high school, but we remained friends long after. We worked at the same company for a couple of years after high school and as young marrieds we played cards on Saturday, often all night. Carthel moved to Dallas. As it turned out by chance, I moved to Dallas a few months later and into the same apartment complex. We did not work together in Dallas, but visited from time to time. I know that he preferred to be called Lee at that time and I always honored his wish. I remember Wilbur and Hilda and their parents as well. Grover was a frequent customer at my dad's tire shop and I always enjoyed visiting with him. I will not try to come to the visitation or services due to the COVID health risk, but I wanted you to know, that I remembered Lee well and again offer my heart felt condolences. With much respect, Duane Handley
