“ I know this is a little late, but I just found out. I am so sorry. Cecelia was a good friend to me and its really hard to think she is gone. One of my funniest memories of her is when I spent the night with her and she wasn't paying attention, we were dancing around and acting silly and she went to get a piece of cheese for the fridge and I instead got butter lol. And ate it anyway. I will miss her. I've wondered for years where she was. Now I know. My thoughts are with all the family. Frances Wolford Templeton

“ The Madsen family knew Cecelia for quite sometime, but it never seems like long enough. She was the most kind, caring and considerate person you would ever meet and many will grieve her passing, but she will never leave our hearts.

I went to school with Cecelia, we ran around together in our teens, she was a very nice person, I wanted to go to the funeral but I have the flu, I'm so sorry for the families loss and my prayers are with them.
