

Cecil Adams

May 23, 1925 - October 6, 2008

Cecil Adams, 83, of Searcy, died Monday, Oct. 6, 2008. He was born May 26, 1925, in DeRoche, Ark., the son of Johnie and Lura Mae Walden Adams.

Mr. Adams taught at Arkansas State University, at South Dakota State University, and at Central High School in Little Rock. He served Harding University for 10 years as a student loan officer and was in the printing industry for many years. Mr. Adams was an elder at the Downtown Church of Christ in Searcy for five years, and was presently a member of the Westside Church of Christ, also in Searcy.

He is survived by his wife, Mary Sue Adams of Searcy; three daughters, Kathy Ware and her husband Terry, Karla Lowery and her husband Kerry, and Amy Stafford and her husband Kenneth; a brother, Mel Adams and his wife Golda; two sisters, Deloris Vereb and her husband John and Wilma Williams and her husband Dean; a step-sister, Naomi Smith; six grandchildren; and six great-grandchildren. He is preceded in death by his parents, Johnie and Lura Mae Adams, one sister and four brothers.

Memorials may be made to the Westside Church of Christ Building Fund or the American Heart Association.

“ Mary Sue, I was so saddened to hear of the loss of Cecil. We've shared lots of laughs and I'll never forget the twinkle in his eyes when he teased. We've lost a friend and brother in Christ, but I bet he is already teasing the angels. Please know that I love you.

“ Sue,

Michelle & I are sorry to hear about Cecil's passing. I have many fond memories of Mr. Cecil. Your family has always been special to us.

As a leader in the church and a leader of his family, we know he is truly at home with our Father! May the Lord bless you and your family during this time. Know that his name is written in the book of life! (John 3:16)

Love,

Mike & Michelle Organ

“ Mary Sue, we were so saddened to hear about your dear Cecil. Nina called us. We wanted to come to visitation so bad, but wasn't able to make it or the servics. Please know we care and we thought so much of Cecil. We always enjoyed kidding with him. He was fun! You are in our thoughts and we love you!
