“ He was our bus driver. He had a hard job, because some of us would get a little unruly. I think we may have been distantly kin to him through my mother Syble Mason Fritts. -- Dwight Fritts

“ I took care of Cecil at Newport! I absolutely fell in love with his amazingly blue eyes! He was the sweetest man ever & could talk for ever! He always talked about his brothers and the Velvet Ridge Church of God & the Velvet Ridge singers! Every time id go in his room he would say to me "don't I know you?" id explain who my dad and grandpa was and he said "well sure enough I know you!" He always made me smile! He will be greatly missed! Fly High Cecil!

“ I remember the first time I met my future father-in-law. It was a Sunday afternoon when I came to visit his daughter, Rhonda. I actually just rode along with my pastor's son who was going to see Dana. I came in the back door into the kitchen of their old house in Honey Holler. His first words were, "Why, I'll break your back!" I laughed, recognizing his great sense of humor and was great friends with him ever since! What a great man he was and what a wealth of wisdom he had! Love that man dearly!
