

Charles Edward "Chuck" Moore III

August 12, 1976 - January 31, 2015

Born August 12, 1976 in Garland, Texas, Charles "Chuck" Edward Moore, III, passed peacefully into eternity in his sleep on January 31, 2015, in Searcy, Arkansas.

Being the baby of the family, Chuck was dearly loved by all. He loved playing baseball-- catcher and slugger--and football, where his size made him a formidable lineman. He enjoyed music--listening to bluegrass, playing trumpet and singing, especially church music with the family. An outdoorsman, Chuck loved fishing and camping, and he had gift for making people laugh.

Chuck earned two degrees from ASU-Beebe--in electronics technology and in computer systems technology--and his work incorporated both fields. In his later years, his greatest pleasure was spending time with his son, Charlie. They have had a lot of fun and enjoyed a close bond.

Left behind to grieve are his good friend and ex-wife, Jennifer Moore; their beloved son, Charlie; parents, Charles and Faye; two sisters, Catherine (Jeff) Walker and Melissa (Alan) Pratt; uncles and aunts; Lloyd (Sherry) Moore, Neal (Kim) Moore, Mary K Woodruff (Tom), Jean (Bill) Adams, Oneal (Connie) Masters, Mary Etta (Donny) Russell, and Terry (Deborah) Masters.

Grandparents were Charles Moore, Sr., Mary Patrick, Kenneth Masters, and Genola Masters.

Chuck was baptized into Christ at Foote Street Church of Christ in Corinth, Mississippi. Blessed be the name of the Lord.

“ Each one of us here today will at one time in our lives look upon a loved one who is in need and ask the same question: We are willing to help, Lord, but what, if anything, is needed? For it is true we can seldom help those closest to us. Either we don't know what part of ourselves to give or, more often than not, the part we have to give is not wanted. And so it is those we live with and should know who elude us. But we can still love them - we can love completely without complete understanding. From "A River Runs Through It". I am so sorry for your loss. You are all in my thoughts and prayers. My heart aches for you.

“ I am extremely heartbroken over the untimely passing of Chuck. I am so very sorry for your loss. It's so tragic, and I wish so much that I could offer you more than words...something to ease your pain. I pray every day for your family to find peace, comfort, strength and hope. I pray the Lord watches over you, puts his loving arms around you, and that you feel his presence and know you're not alone. I cry every day for Chuck. I pray every day for Chuck. I wish I could have seen him...spoken to him...one more time. He will be greatly missed by many, as he was greatly loved by many.

“ I cannot believe it has been a year already. I was just thinking of you, and speaking to a friend about you, the other day. It is so hard to believe that you're gone. I hope you are singing with the Angels, and I hope we meet again one day. You are dearly missed by many.
