“Uncle Charles, you will be sorely missed. I cherish all the memories that I had spending with you when I was younger. No one can ever replace the times we had fishing. You have your wings now and I know I will see you again someday and we can rejoice. I love and miss you.”

“Peggy, may you remember happy times with Charles. Cling to life as you know God would want. You are still needed and God always has a plan. Your children are nearby, which is fortunate because they love and care about your feelings. May God Bless and Grant you peace. I think Charles was too young to go, but what I think was not God's Will.
