

Charles Mangrum

August 25, 1922 - September 30, 2013

Charles Mangrum, 91, of Judsonia, went to be with the Lord Monday, September 30, 2013 at the White County Medical Center. He was born August 25, 1922 in Caraway, Arkansas a son of the late Melvin and Arletta Mangrum. Charles was an active resident of the Judsonia community. He served as Deacon at the First Baptist Church, where he had been a member since 1948. Through the years, he had served as church treasurer, Sunday school teacher, choir member and numerous church committees. He had served as Judsonia City Clerk, Judsonia Alderman, member of the Judsonia Volunteer Fire Department and was the caretaker of the Evergreen Cemetery for a number of years. Charles was a retired construction superintendent and had received numerous awards and honors for his achievements. He was an avid reader and outdoorsman, as long as health permitted. He loved life, enjoyed telling jokes and never met a stranger.

He is survived by his wife, Nell Mangrum; daughter, Kathryn Naglak and husband John of The Villages, Florida; grandchildren, Elizabeth Naglak of Little Rock and Matthew Naglak of Ann Arbor, Michigan; sister, Julia Ramsey of Lake City.

He was preceded in death by a brother, Edward Mangrum and a sister, Zula Duke.

The body will lie in state at Powel I Funeral Home in Bald Knob on Wednesday, from 9:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m. Services will be conducted on Thursday, October 3, 2013 at 2:00 p.m. at the Judsonia First Baptist Church with Bro. Carey Trickey officiating. Interment will follow in the Evergreen Cemetery by Powell Funeral Home, Bald Knob-Judsonia. www.powellfuneralhome.net.

Tribute Wall

RD

“ I get the Searcy paper 2 or 3 days late through the mail. I read tonight of your father passing, Kathy, I hope you smile at your memorys of him and find comfort in the Lords promise to all who believe.....

---

Robert L. Dunaway - February 10, 2016 at 03:09 PM