“ I've not seen Larry since 1967 but have fond memories of childhood days. Larry always had a smile, would help us that were younger. There was a field at the end of Spring Street where we'd play. There was grapevines there and a small pond where we'd take a dip. I'd smoke grapevines which Larry didn't think much of as I recall. Said they stunk. I believe Larry grew into the kind, helping man he'd been as a kid. I will never forget him nor those lazy summer days the Steward boys and the rest of the us gwould just laze away. God bless you Larry. To your family I say I'm sorry for their loss and ours. May God watch over them and comfort them in the days to come. A Friend JL Lawson
