Charles Taggart was born on November 29, 1934, and passed away on June 3, 2026, at the age of 91.

A lifelong farmer, Charles dedicated his life to raising rice and soybeans and took great pride in the land he worked for many years. Even in his later years, he remained deeply interested in the farm, always checking on the crops and sharing his observations and advice. He had a special love for his peach trees and found great joy in tending them, harvesting their fruit, and sharing peaches with friends, neighbors, and members of the community. Charles was also known for his love of card games and the many hours he spent enjoying poker with friends.

Charles was preceded in death by his parents, Glenn and Viola Taggart; his sisters, Jean Holmes and Annette McClintock; and his brothers, Tommy Taggart and Gary Taggart.

He is survived and will be deeply missed by his children: Karen Chandler and her partner, Johnny King; Krista Taggart and her life partner, Glenn Bingham; and Alan Taggart and his wife, Lori Taggart.

He is also survived by his grandchildren, Samantha and Jerrod Haynes, Jacob and Brooke Chandler, Tori and Zach Coats, and Kade Haygood.

His legacy continues through his great-grandchildren, Layne Chandler, Mackenzie Chandler, Ridge Haynes, Hawkins Haynes, Frankie Coats, and Cal Coats.

Charles proudly served in the Air National Guard and was a dedicated member of the Augusta School Board for several years. He also had a lifelong passion for flying and especially enjoyed piloting his Piper Cub and spending time in the skies.

“ Charle was a special person. He could be serious and witty at the same time. He did not lose his temper to often, he was kind, gentle, sincere, caring,humble, loving individual. He enjoyed life, as well as people. He loved his family and his farm. He loved to get out there on a piece of equipment and tear some ground up, turn over some dirt, or cut , harvest something. He also enjoyed travel and was always up for a trip. He was a fun person to be around and will deeply missed by all.

“ Mr. Charles was a sweet man. He always included our family when he picked his peaches and brought us fresh strawberries in the spring. Many prayers for his family during their time of grieving. Mr. Charles will be sorely missed.
