“ TJ and I feel very blessed to have shared a friendship with Cheryl. She always showed such compassion, acceptance, and unselfishness. Her positive and upbeat personality made her a joy to be around. We enjoyed the many basketball games we spent together at BK where we cheered, (yelled at the refs quite a bit!! lol), laughed, and made many memories. We will never forget the beautiful smile and the kindness that Cheryl always shown to both of us and our children. We send our deepest sympathies to Brian and Megan and please know you are in our prayers. Thank you for sharing Cheryl with us!!

*It hurts to loose that special person. It hurts really really bad.
It is difficult to grasp the good times and thoughts at first.
